

PROBATE (Uncontested)

We can help you through this difficult process by obtaining the Grant of Probate on your behalf. We will also undertake the collecting and distributing of assets.

We anticipate this will take between 20 and 80 hours work at £250 per hour. Total costs estimated at £5,000 - £20,000. Alternatively, we offer a fixed fee of 2.5% of the gross value of the estate.

The exact cost will depend on the individual circumstances of the matter. For example, if there is one beneficiary and no property, costs will be at the lower end of the range. If there are multiple beneficiaries, a property and multiple bank accounts, costs will be at the higher end.

Our fee includes:-

- Provide you with a dedicated and experienced probate solicitor to work on your matter;
- Identify the legally appointed executors or administrators and beneficiaries;
- Accurately identify the type of Probate application you will require;
- Obtain the relevant documents required to make the application;
- Complete the Probate Application and the relevant HMRC forms;
- Draft a legal oath for you to swear/sign;
- Make the application to the Probate Court on your behalf;
- Obtain the Probate and securely send two copies to you;
- Collect and distribute all assets in the estate.

Disbursements

Disbursements are costs related to your matter that are payable to third parties, such as court fees. We handle the payment of the disbursements on your behalf to ensure a smoother process. These may include:-

- Probate application fee of £155;
- £10 Swearing of the oath (per executor);
- Statutory advertising - £200 plus VAT (estimate);

Additional Costs

- If there is no will or the estate consists of any shareholdings (stocks and bonds) there is likely to be additional costs that could range significantly depending on the estate and how it is to be dealt with. We can give you a more accurate quote once we have more information.
- If inheritance tax is payable, additional work will be required which may increase the overall costs to administer the estate.
- If any additional copies of the grant are required, they will cost £0.50 per copy.
- Dealing with the sale or transfer of any property in the estate is not included.

How long will this take?

On average, estates that fall within this range are dealt with within 3-9 months depending on the assets and complexity of the estate. Typically, obtaining the grant of probate takes 2-4 weeks. Collecting assets then follows, which can take between 2-4 weeks. Once this has been done, we can distribute the assets, which normally takes 2-3 weeks.

EMPLOYMENT (unfair/wrongful dismissal) – For Individuals

Our pricing for bringing claims for unfair or wrongful dismissal range between:-

- Simple case: £5,000 - £12,500
- Medium complexity case: £12,500 - £35,000
- High complexity case: £35,000 - £100,000

The fee range set out above excludes representation at the final hearing or any other disbursements and expenses (see below). Barrister representation is treated as a disbursement, which is explained below.

If any additional claims are brought alongside a claim for unfair dismissal or wrongful dismissal, this could make your matter more expensive. The figures set out above apply only to cases of unfair or wrongful dismissal.

Factors that could make a case more complex:

- If it is necessary to make or defend applications to amend claims or to provide further information about an existing claim;
- Defending claims that are brought by litigants in person;
- Making or defending a costs application;
- Complex preliminary issues such as whether the claimant is disabled (if this is not agreed by the parties);
- The number of witnesses and documents;
- The number of days a hearing takes;
- If it is an automatic unfair dismissal claim e.g. if you are dismissed after blowing the whistle on your employer;
- Allegations of discrimination which are linked to the dismissal;
- Making data subject access requests and perusing documents produced by the employer.

Sometimes there are additional funding options available including Legal Expenses insurance (often available through a home or car insurance policy), fixed fees or alternatively a “no win no fee” or contingency/damages-based arrangement, which can be discussed at the initial appointment.

If a contingency/damages-based arrangement is the preferred funding method, we only receive payment of our fees if the client succeeds with their claim and recovers damages. We receive a percentage (usually 35% for damages-based agreements) of the recovered damages received from the opposing party. In addition, the client is responsible for any disbursements (see below). If the client is unsuccessful with their claim, we do not receive payment. However, the client remains liable for disbursements spent on their behalf (see below).

We offer a free initial consultation.

Disbursements

Disbursements are costs related to your matter that are payable to third parties, such as court fees or barrister fees. Employment Tribunal fees were abolished in 2017 but on occasion there may be other disbursement costs such as the costs of obtaining a medical report. The costs of these will depend on the circumstances of your case. We handle the payment of the disbursements on your behalf to ensure a smoother process.

We have a brilliant relationship with barristers locally and nationwide who assist with advocacy for the final hearing. Depending on the complexity of the case, the location of the final hearing and the seniority of barrister instructed, representation for a one day final hearing of an unfair dismissal claim might be:-

- Counsel up to 10 years call: £1,000 - £2,000 plus VAT; refresher (per additional day) - £1,250 plus VAT
- Experienced Counsel more than 10 years call (not QC): £2,000 - £4,000 plus VAT; refresher - £1,500 plus VAT
- QC: upwards of £5,000 plus VAT; refresher - £3,000 plus VAT upwards

Key stages

The fees set out above cover all of the work in relation to the following key stages of a claim:

- taking your initial instructions, reviewing the papers and advising you on merits and likely compensation (this is likely to be revisited throughout the matter and subject to change);
- entering into pre-claim conciliation where this is mandatory to explore whether a settlement can be reached;
- preparing your claim and the nature of your dispute;
- reviewing and advising on the response from other party and discussing the response with you;
- exploring settlement and negotiating settlement throughout the process;
- preparing or considering a schedule of loss;
- preparing for (and attending) a Preliminary Hearing;
- exchanging documents with the other party and agreeing a bundle of documents;
- taking witness statements, drafting statements and agreeing their content with witnesses;
- preparing bundle of documents;
- reviewing and advising on the other party's witness statements
- agreeing a list of issues, a chronology and/or cast list
- preparing instructions to Counsel for representation at the final hearing;
- preparing instructions to Counsel for representation at any Remedy Hearing, if not dealt with at the Final Hearing.

The stages set out above are an indication and if some of stages above are not required, the fee will be reduced. You may wish to handle the claim yourself and only have our advice in relation to some of the stages. This can also be arranged on your individual needs and discussed at the initial meeting.

How long will my matter take?

The time that it takes from taking your initial instructions to the final resolution of your matter depends largely on the stage at which your case is resolved. If a settlement is reached during pre-claim conciliation, your case is likely to take 2-4 weeks. If your claim proceeds to a Final Hearing, your case is likely to take 26-52 weeks. This is just an estimate and we will of course be able to give you a more accurate timescale once we have more information and as the matter progresses.
